Motivated by the shining lamp of learning, we grow in wisdom and vision and see ourselves clothed in a fabric of our own making. Like the moth, we are weaving a "cocoon" that envelopes and identifies us. We scorn, however, the single thread of the moth. Our threads are variegated and colorful—rough and silky. We combine the hard denim of work, the shiny satin and frothy lace of social events, the strong burlap of sports, and the bold patterns of knitted yarns to make our "coat of many colors" truly reflect our own personalities. There is smoothness like a ribbon of laughter woven among the coarseness of disappointments and failures.

No two garments are the same—our interests, skills, and abilities form different designs. What we do, what we think, and what we feel are reflected in the material which we produce. It is our fervent hope that each added pattern be complete and interesting; that our fibers be strong and true; and that our colors be pure and rich.

This coat becomes our magic carpet which transports us from the realm of learning into the active world of achievement. The fabric and we are the same—you see . . .

THIS IS THE FAB

RIC OF OUR LIVES

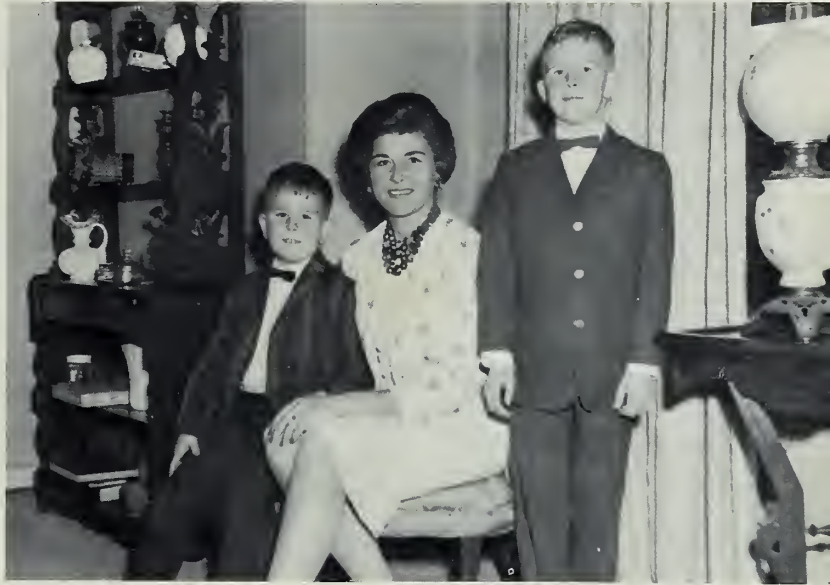

MR. J. FRED WITHERS

A HEARTFELT DEDICATION

Your keen interest in our high school and your understanding of her students has evoked in us a desire for knowledge, an assurance of ourselves, and an awareness of our personal responsibilities. We shall always be inspired by your spicy wit and ever-present sense of humor. These are but a few of the fine characteristics that make you outstanding.

To you, Mr. Withers, we sincerely offer a place in our personal Hall of Fame as . . . "The greatest."

Mrs. Withers at home with Mark and Grafton.

Mr. Withers concentrates on pressing problems.

"It's what's up front that counts"

ACADEMIC

We are the looms through which each thread must pass. The weaving is continuous and the threads must not be broken in order to achieve the desired finished product. Each strand of learning makes our cloth stronger, more durable, and more beautiful. Our teachers have fashioned patterns of time and space which blend secrets of mystic knowledge with the reality of clearest vision. Our enrichment of the fabric is only accomplished through labor, which we often resist, but which is essential in the shaping and molding process by which we become truly educated. In our class rooms we have daily opportunities to widen our horizons, strengthen our moral fibers, and enhance our total personalities. As we slowly and painstakingly acquire knowledge and skills, we are aware of a change in our concept of ideals and standards. The superficial is discarded, and we yearn for increased wisdom for its own sake as well as for achievement of personal goals. We find our "place in the sun" only after a firm foundation is laid.

KINGS MOUNTAIN BOARD OF EDUCATION

School business in Kings Mountain has become "big business", and the men and women comprising our school board have given unstintingly of both time and effort in planning, executing, and formulating school policy for the entire system.

The tremendous job with its heavy burden of responsibility would stagger men of less vision and courage than our board possesses. Moving forward steadily toward the realization of a community dream—a new high school plant, we can anticipate a time in the future when our students will occupy a modern structure with a broadened curriculum and wider range of study.

Too often we forget to say thank you for past performance and future achievements, but may the MILESTONES staff do so now with sincerity and gratitude.

Miss Alice Averitt, A.B., Atlantic Christian; M.A., George Peabody

SUPERVISOR COORDINATES TEACHING AND TESTING PROGRAM

Miss Averitt and Mr. Kay of the Guidance Department discuss testing.

In a position of vast responsibility Miss Averitt serves with warmth, understanding, and deep perception of the problems of students and teachers alike. The elementary and high school programs are enriched through the circulation of current teaching materials and audio-visual aids from her office. Her belief in sound education for all children is demonstrated each day through her work and accomplishments.

In this second year of consolidation, we are well on the way to achieving the results predicted. It was generally felt that through consolidation we could have a high school of sufficient size to offer an excellent educational program. Through the cooperation given by patrons and students, our school is making splendid progress. A bond issue has provided funds for a new high school. A large site has been purchased, and we expect in the near future to have the building and facilities necessary for our school's progress. It has been a source of satisfaction to us to see how the student body has made use of the present facilities and how well the students have worked together forming a strong unit with an excellent school spirit. Our people have cooperated and have shown they want a good school and are willing to do whatever is necessary to support one. There have been inconveniences, as were expected, due to crowded conditions; but these have been accepted during this period of transition from three high schools to one.

We realize that a good school does not come by chance. It has to come through design, careful planning, and cooperation. With the spirit that we see existing in our school unit, especially among the pupils in the high school, we have no fear for the future.

Mr. B. N. Barnes, Superintendent

Mrs. Wanza Davis, secretary to the Superintendent, demonstrates her ability in the office; she retains an abiding interest in all the students.

Past president of the Kiwanis Club, Mr. Barnes is active in civic organizations.

SOUND ADMINISTRATION EFFECTED THROUGH HARD WORK OF COMPETENT SUPERINTENDENT

Cheryel McAbee, Mary Evans, Brenda Lovelace, and Marilyn Dixon help with work in Mr. Barnes' office.

It takes a Superintendent "on the move" to cover entire district.

Mr. Harry E. Jaynes, Principal

The school year 1962-63 at Kings Mountain High School will not reach its inevitable sunset without leaving numerous marks of distinction. Our entire student body was gravely affected by the Cuban Crisis. This nuclear war threat and the thorough preparation you made will long remain a distinction. The additions of a complete Guidance Department and elementary special education classes have given you a new outlook on yourself and others. The use of the entire building for high school work has enabled us to officially omit the name Central from our high school.

The senior class holds the distinction of being the largest in the history of this school. It also ranks above most senior classes in leading the student body in its quest for excellence in education. The senior class holds still another distinction. This distinction is their leadership in one of our finest activities programs. We have excelled and expanded in many activities which will help us to keep the fine reputation presently enjoyed by all of us.

As the year ends, everyone is faced with a vital school challenge. This challenge is the preparation and planning for our new high school. You, the faculty and student body, will have many opportunities to help establish routines and to set standards for the new school. Let us all join together in this task, complete this planning and assure our community that the new high school will inherit the rich educational traditions you have had a part in establishing.

Warm, wonderful yarn—that adaptable thread that winds its way into our lives. Its versatility makes it a perfect companion for our moods, and it satisfies our need for expression in a form other than through books in classrooms.

Just as an afghan is knitted of the yarns of many colors forming numerous designs, so must our lives be enlarged with many activities to avoid monotony, to encourage growth, and to promote understanding. When we look at the afghan, we think of warmth, which represents the close club friendships with classmates and faculty; the definite patterns, which we realize we must also follow so that we may be of service; and lastly, the glorious colors, which surely make us think of happiness, gaiety, and youth.

Patterns, colors, and textures provide the interest and excitement in our perfect fabric.

We experience a feeling of pride as the sound of the gavel echoes still in our hearts.

TIME, TALENT, AND TOIL EXPENDED IN EDITING OF MILESTONES

Only those people on the editorial staff can describe the endless hours spent behind mountains of paper, trying to meet deadlines. Writing copy and captions, drawing up layout pages, arranging for pictures, proofreading—this work demands an imaginative, creative mind, not to mention time and that “never give-up” attitude.

The spirit of KMHS is reflected in the pages of this yearbook. It is a record of all the memories of our high school years, which otherwise might soon fade away.

The financing and circulation of Milestones is the tremendous task of the business staff. Last summer this busy group began soliciting advertisements for the 1963 edition. Proceeds from two sock hops and from the concession stand at the basketball games have also been added to the yearbook account.

The members of the business staff have contributed unselfishly of their time and talent and have never lost their dogged perseverance.

We, the students, are grateful to them, for without them, this annual could never have become a reality.

ATHLETICS

On the playing fields and in the gymnasium of KMHS we send forth our representatives—the “cream of the crop”. The core of our athletic program centers around the major sports, football and basketball, and the entire student body is caught up in the excitement of the seasons. Our moments of triumph add zest to our lives and to the spirit of our school.

As burlap symbolizes toughness, strength, and durability in our cloth, so does athletics add these dimensions to our lives. Through gruelling hours of practice, our athletes acquire skills, strength, patience, and determination. Win or lose, an important lesson is imparted through competition— to do our best for the team, take “bad breaks” without bitterness, and rejoice in the warm glow of earned victories.

The increased resolve within us to be good sports wherever we go adds a desirable pattern.

MOMENTS OF TRIUMPH AND

The 1962 football season was the year of the inexperienced for the Kings Mountain Mountaineers. It was to be the rebuilding year—a year which the “freshman” head coach would use to teach his squad of inexperienced and uninitiated gridgers the basic rudiments of the gridiron sport.

After a slow start, the relatively inexperienced aggregation came to life with the fourth game of the season and rolled to the season's end as the most improved team in the conference.

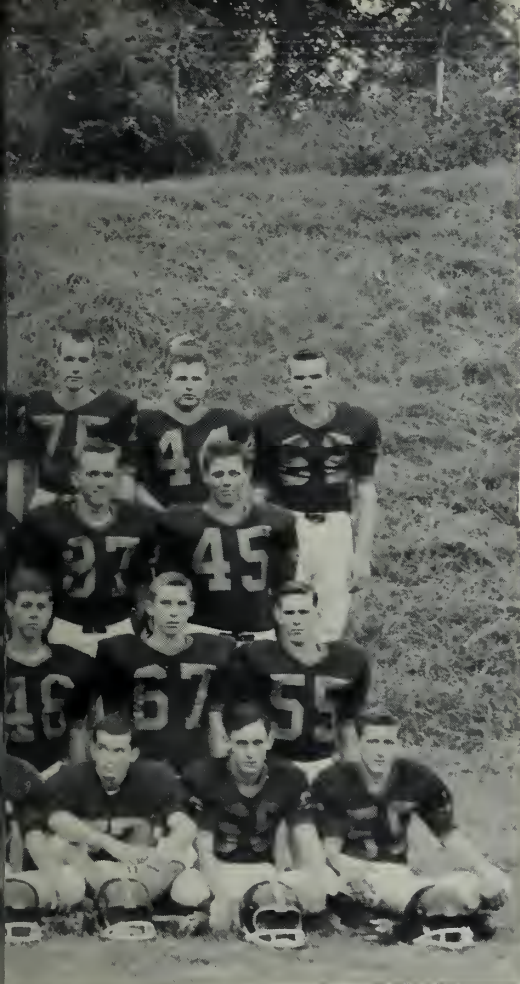

The first game for the new squad was a split affair in which both the Mountaineers and East Rutherford dominated play for one half. At the game's conclusion each team breathed a sigh of relief at the 0-0 final score.

Next came the venture into Palmetto land to test one of South Carolina's best teams, York. The Mountaineers never got a chance to get rolling in this one, but they made the Green Dragons battle for every inch of turf before falling 20-6.

They were less impressive in the next week as they downed Chase 18-0 in the first home game of the season. They could not take advantage of the breaks in this encounter which should have been more of a run-away.

It was an altogether different story in the county seat the following Friday. Kings Mountain suffered an opening lapse and fell to the Golden Lions of Shelby by the margin of a “foot”, 7-6. Following the opening score by the Lions, it was “all Mountaineer” as they pushed Shelby from one end of the field to the other. This was the game that made

Coaches Robert Cooper, Bill Bates, Head, and Don Parker.

DEJECTION MARK MOUNTAINEER SEASON

Kings Mountain the team to beat throughout the remainder of the season.

They did it the next week against the Little Six Conference champions, Bessemer City. Only a preponderance of penalties in the first half held the winning margin to 13-7 at the final gun.

Against the defending WNCHSAA Champions, Mooreville, in the sixth game, the Mountaineers were the victims of two "home-run" plays as they lost 20-13.

October 19 saw the improving Kings Mountain eleven give a large Lincolnton Homecoming crowd the scare of its life before bowing in the final minutes 19-13. The Wolves trailed by a single point until the last minute TD pulled the game out of the fire.

Rutherfordton-Spindale was the next to suffer at the hands of the Mountaineers. A pre-season dark-horse, the Hilltoppers fell to the Bates team. The score was only 7-0, but it didn't tell the entire story.

The team that was said to have nothing at the season's beginning moved into third place in the conference in the ninth game. The 13-0 shut out left Belmont still looking for its first win over Kings Mountain.

Cherryville came to town for the season's finale. The Ironmen were battling for a winning season. Kings Mountain was holding precariously to the third rung on the conference ladder. Penalties against the Mountaineers demolished this hope as the team was defeated 6-0.

This was the year of reconstruction. Next year could be the year of attainment.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Beauty and scholarship are qualities—a radiance of face and spirit, an aura of charm and enchantment, and a depth of perception and love. They are moods of happiness and delight, made more meaningful by the sharing of “shining hours” with classmates, teachers, and parents. Jewels of royalty and the velvet of nobility—what could depict more eloquently our honor students and our queens. You who have been chosen for high achievement in your respective fields wear your velvet cloaks with pride and heed the message of the little pearl—stay beautiful within and without. We would weave together the panels of our garment like a string of pearls, each an entity unto itself, yet each an integral part of the whole.

The queen and sponsors enjoy the "Autumn Leaves" Homecoming Dance

Senior football players and their mothers

The 1962 Homecoming festivities at Kings Mountain High School were celebrated October 26. A victory over Rutherfordton-Spindale Central made spirits soar for this annual affair, over which Queen Peggy Plonk reigned.

The alumni were welcomed to the "Autumn Leaves Homecoming Dance" which was held in the gymnasium. The dance featured the presentation of the Homecoming Queen and the sponsors for the senior football players.

MISS HI MISS

This year for the first time both a Junior and a Senior girl were elected by their respective classes for this coveted title. In a special issue of THE JOHNSONIAN, student newspaper of Winthrop College in Rock Hill, South Carolina, these girls will be honored along with many others from high schools within a one-hundred mile radius of the college. They will also spend a gala week end in April as guests of Winthrop. They were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, attractiveness, and character.

D.A.R. GOOD CITIZEN AWARD WINNER

Each year the Kings Mountain Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution presents a Citizenship Award pin to a Senior girl chosen in popular election by her classmates as most worthy of this honor. Such attributes as scholarship, school patriotism, character, and personal attractiveness are qualities upon which selection is based.

The winner is invited by the local chapter to a district meeting of all "Good Citizens" held at the Kings Mountain National Battleground. Films of the Kings Mountain battle are shown and tours are arranged for those interested.

In addition to the pin, the recipient is given a Good Citizen Certificate and invited to a spring meeting of the local chapter where she is presented to the members.

Better light—better sight!

Study time is eyestrain time! Reading . . . writing . . . study . . . all these need the right light to help your eyes see . . . and there's a right size bulb for every job. • Use at least a 150-watt lamp bulb of the diffused type. • Eliminate dark shadows by having general room lighting. • Eliminate glare by making sure no unshielded lights are in sight.

JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Kings Mountain, N. C.

Spring 1963

Freshman Attendants and Escorts: Mary Ann Morrison and Chip McGinnis, Linda Brown and Mike Tignor.

FLOWERS AND MAY DAY

The "K" Club scored another success this year with the May Day program. The theme "Carnival" was carried out by the girls' physical education classes through appropriate dances. The background mural depicted the anxious, anticipating crowd always seen at a circus.

FROLIC MARK FESTIVITIES

The gowns of pink, yellow, and blue provided a colorful background for the royal festivities. The beauty of the queen and the charm of the attendants wove a spell of fantasy which transported the spectators into the delightful world of "Carnival."

Junior Attendants and Escorts: Emogene Robinson and Ernie Davis, Juanita Dellinger and Rick Goforth.

Senior Attendants and Escorts: Susan Hoad and Donn Freeman, Carol Bridges and Kenneth Barnes.

Our own KMHS baseball team this year won the Southwestern Conference championship. Having an 11-3 record during the regular season, it met its defeat in a 3-0 game with Hickory. The boys on the team should be proud of their excellent showing. We offer them our heartiest congratulations for a job well done.

Managers: Kenneth Parker, David Clippard, and Joe Payne.

THEY'RE OFF!

Unlike other high school sports, track participants compete as individuals. With the exception of the relay race, each boy on the team must prove his own worth.

The track team attended three scheduled meets, and those outstanding boys who qualified competed in the bi-conference meet. Competition at these meets was keen, but our boys came through each time with a good account of themselves.

First row: Corky Smith, Buz Shuford, Mike Tignor, Ben Grimes, Paul Reynolds, Calvin Lockridge, Steve Baker, Pete Putnam, Jerry Lockridge. Second row: Mike Beam, Jimmy Wright, Jimmy Cloninger, Joe Cunningham, Edgar Blackburn, Lyn Cheshire, Sid Carpenter, Jimmy Gahn, James Hope. Third row: Fred Dixon, Mike Huffstickler, Wayne Laughter, Eddie Spencer, Mike Goforth, Pat Hord, Richard

GOLF TEAM ESTABLISHES 7-2 RECORD

Terry Leonard and George Plonk

Mr. Boyd

We were proud to welcome to our school this semester two new teachers. Mr. Boyd, a graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College, taught math and civics. Mr. Bradley, our student teacher, was a pleasant addition to our business education department.

Both men gave generously of their time and talents to improve further the quality of teaching in our high school. We shall miss Mr. Bradley, and we shall gladly welcome back Mr. Boyd next fall.

PAGEANT PORTRAYS MEANING OF EASTER

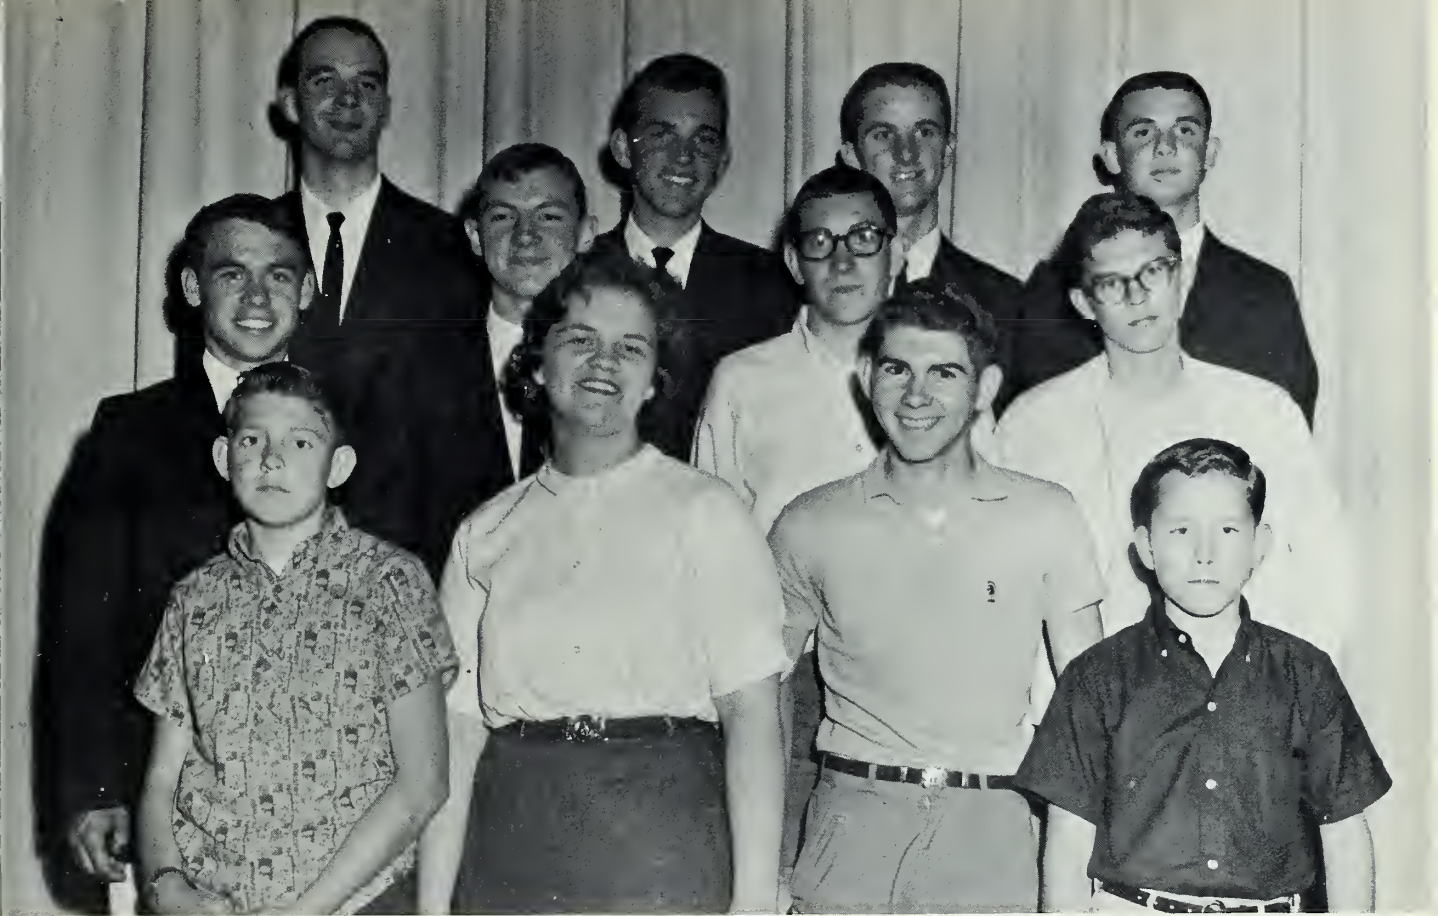

Bible Club members during presentation of "The Unrecorded Miracle."

A most inspiring Easter play was given by the Bible Club this spring. The pageant, written by Quay Moss and Edward Lovelace, was the story of a Roman centurion who became a Christian. It was chosen from a number of plays written by Bible students. Appropriate to the Easter season, the pageant served as a fitting reminder of the true meaning of the Resurrection of Christ.

Quay Moss and Edward Lovelace confer on production problems.

First row: Ike Patterson, Judy Callahan, Jeff Patterson, Billy King. Second row: Quay Moss, Kenneth

Once again, KMHS students had the opportunity to display their talents in the annual Kiwanis Talent Show. The winners of the high school preliminary performed in the city-wide show, the proceeds of which will help finance a local youth project. The show proved to be an interesting program for the spectators, as well as a "proving ground" for aspiring entertainers.

Winning "Weejins" display triumphant smiles.

EAGER CONTESTANTS DELIGHT AUDIENCE

SENIORS HONORED AT LUAU

Eye-catching sign is "conversation piece."

An Hawaiian hut, a rolling surf, swaying palm trees, pretty girls in grass skirts—what better setting for an unforgettable Junior-Senior Prom. Guests were greeted at the door with "Aloha" and festive leis. After the promenade, the newly-crowned Queen of the Prom reigned over the dance. It will always be remembered by the seniors as one of the highlights of their last year at KMHS.

Industrious juniors decorate for "big night."

Waitresses welcome guests with leis.

Couples dance under fragrant hanging baskets.

The Ecstasy and . . . the Agony

139 SENIORS GRADUATE ON MAY 29

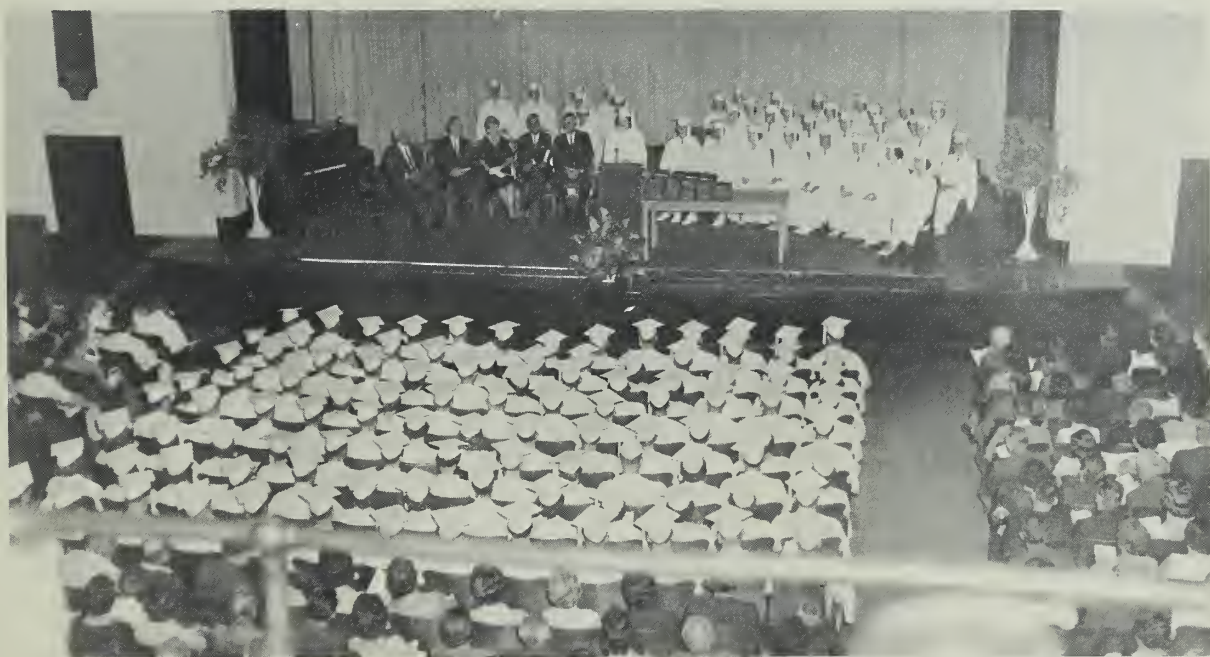

Graduation—it is a time of mixed emotions. This is the day we have looked forward to for twelve years; but now that it is here, we don't know whether to laugh or cry. We want to laugh, because we know we have accomplished something and are ready to go out and meet the world. We want to cry because we know it is time to leave all our good times and all our wonderful memories behind. But this is the day that will forever have a special place in our hearts—Graduation Day.

Silent preparations for "big moment."
